Dear Arlene,

Hi, This is Bill DePaulo (DePaul). I replied to your email on classmates.com and I'm bringing you this email in case you don't get the other. I live in Huntington Beach, CA, with my wife Susan. I'm semi-retired out of the Automotive Business. My wife owns + operates a Home Store in Costa Mesa, the next town. Our kids are all grown and doing their own things. I visited your travel website and was amazed at all the great pictures and reviews. I'm really like to know when you're having another so my wife and I can attend. The pictures you posted were wonderful. They brought back some great memories, seeing Dave, Bob, and Jim. I was sorry to hear of Dave Keyko's death. We roomed together and the class trip to D.C. I know of Bill Young. I was in the Air Force when he died. Anyway, I thought I'd send you a couple of pictures, possibly from your website. One was taken at the Pier in Huntington Beach where we live.

The other was taken at a cafe in Paris, France, where my wife and I brought in the New Year in 2007.

Anyway, Arlene, I wanted to thank you for putting together the website + contacting me through classmates.

It would be great to hear from you again, as well as Dave, Bob, and Jim. My email address is billdepaulo@verizon.net. Stay Hello to everybody for me. It has been "A Very Long Time".

With Best Regards

Bill D.
